Purpose

To provide an opportunity for speakers to improve their speaking abilities and to recognise the best as encouragement to all; and to provide an opportunity to learn by observing the more proficient speakers who have benefited from their Toastmasters training.

Eligibility

To be eligible to compete at any level of the International Speech Contest, an individual must:

- be a member in good standing of the Club in which he or she is competing. The Club also must be in good standing. A new, dual, or reinstated member must have dues and membership application current with World Headquarters.

- have completed at least six manual speeches in the Communication and Leadership Program manual prior to the Club contest (see special rules for newly chartered clubs).
- maintain eligibility at all levels of any contest (see conditions in rulebook)

The following are ineligible to compete in this contest:

- incumbent International Officers and Directors
- District Officers (Governor, any Lieutenant Governor, Secretary, Treasurer, Public Relations Officer, Division and Area Governors) whose terms expire June 30
- International Officer and Director candidates
- Immediate Past District Governors
- District Officers or announced candidates for the term beginning the upcoming July 1
- presenters of educational sessions at the Area, Division, and District event at which the contest will be held
- an individual may not be a judge at any level for a contest in which they are still competing

Speech subject

The subject which must be substantially original, is selected by the contestant. Any quoted material must be so identified during the speech presentation.

Timing

The speech timing is 5-7 minutes. You will be disqualified if you speak for less than 4 minutes 30 seconds or more than 7 minutes 30 seconds.

Timing begins with the first word uttered by you, but if you engage in definite verbal or nonverbal communication with the audience prior to reaching the speaking position and uttering the first word, timing begins then.

Green light at 5 minutes for one minute. Yellow light at 6 minutes for one minute. Red light at 7 minutes and remains on until speech concluded.

Travel expenses

District 73 will pay for the cheapest flight 'available on the day' for each Division winner to attend the District final of the International contest. Toastmasters International will pay for the flights for the District winner to attend the International Convention in the USA. District 73 will pay for the accommodation for the winner.

INTERNATIONAL CONTEST – GUIDE FOR THE CONTEST CHAIR

(Prior to the contest being called to order, you will have met with the contestants to review the contest rules and draw for speaking position)

- Acknowledge the Introducer and welcome the audience to the contest. (You may elect to make introductory remarks to allow the audience to transition and be ready for the speech contest).
- Explain the reason we hold this contest (read from the Speech Contest Manual)
- Acknowledge any distinguished guests, the Chief Judge and all other officials.
- Present a brief summary of the contest rules (remind the audience that no one will be allowed to enter or leave the room as long as a contestant is at the lectern. Please turn off all cell phones and beepers. No photos during the contest but photos may be taken during contestant interviews and awards presentation.)
- State to the audience that all speakers will be introduced by name, speech title, speech title, name only.
- If the Chief Judge has not given the speaking order, do so at this time so all judges and the audience can make note of it.
- Proceed to introduce Speaker #1.
- Wait at the lectern until the speaker arrives, shake his/her hand and step back. Wait until the speaker has acknowledged you and then sit down.
- When the speaker completes his/her speech, move quickly to the lectern and shake his/her hand. (Make no comments about the speech. Simply say 'thank you')
- Ask the audience to remain quiet while the judges complete their judging forms.
- Ask the Timer to let you know when 1 minute has passed.
- When the Timer signals you time has elapsed, introduce Speaker #2 and follow the same pattern as above.
- Repeat the same process for all speakers.
- When the last speaker has completed his/her speech, ask the audience to remain quiet while the judges complete their ballots. Ask the Chief Judge to signal you when all ballots have been collected.

AFTER THE CONTEST

Make some comment about how great the speech contest was and invite the audience to show their agreement by a round of applause for the speakers.

- Invite Speaker #1 to the lectern for an interview.
- At the close of the interview present each contestant with a Certificate of Participation and thank him/her once again for being a part of the contest.

After the last contestant has been interviewed, make some comments about how much you have appreciated the opportunity to serve as the Contest Toastmaster and hand control of the lectern to the Chief Judge to announce the results.

To be eligible to compete in any Evaluation, Humorous, Tail Tales, and Table Topics speech contests, an individual must be a Toastmaster in good standing of a Club in good standing. For the International Speech Contest a contestant must also have completed at least six speech projects in the Communication and Leadership Program manual. For the International Speech Contest these requirements are waived only for a charter member of a Club chartered since July 1. The Club must be officially chartered prior to the Area contest.

The following are ineligible for competition in any speech contest: incumbent International Officers and Directors or candidates for these offices; District officers (District Governor, Immediate Past District Governor, any Lieutenant Governor, Division Governor, Area Governor, Secretary, or Treasurer) whose terms expire June 30; District officers or announced candidates for the term beginning the upcoming July 1. Past first place winners of the International Speech Contest are not eligible to compete at any level of the International Speech Contest. The immediate past winner for the Regional Humorous Speech Contest is not eligible to compete at any level in the current year's Humorous Speech Contest.

Toastmasters who are members in more than one Club and who meet all other eligibility requirements may compete in each Club contest in which membership in good standing is held. However, should they win more than one Club contest, they can represent only one of the Clubs at the Area level. No contestant can compete in more than one Area contest, even if the two Areas are in different Divisions or different Districts.

Note: This form is to be completed by each contestant and submitted before the contest to the chief judge at each level of competition.

JUDGING CRITERIA

Content (50%)

SPEECH DEVELOPMENT is the way the speaker puts ideas together so the audience can understand them. The speech is structured around a purpose, and the structure must include an opening, body and conclusion. A good speech immediately engages the audience's attention and then moves forward to a significant conclusion. This development of the speech structure is supported by relevant examples and illustrations, facts and figures, delivered with such smoothness that they blend into the framework of the speech to present the audience with a unified whole.

EFFECTIVENESS is measured in part by the audience's reception of the speech, but a large part is your subjective judgment of how the speech came across. You should ask yourself such questions as "Was I able to determine the speaker's purpose?" "Did the speech relate directly to that purpose?" "Was the audience's interest held by the speaker?" "Was this speech subject appropriate for this particular audience?"

SPEECH VALUE justifies the act of speaking. The speaker has a responsibility to say something meaningful and original to the audience. The listeners should feel the speaker has made a contribution to their thinking. The ideas should be important ones, although this does not preclude a humorous presentation of them.

Delivery (30%)

PHYSICAL presentation of a speech carries part of the responsibility for effective communication. The speaker's appearance should reinforce the speech, whether profound, sad, humorous, instructional. Body language should support points through gestures, expressions and body positioning.

VOICE is the sound that carries the message. It should be flexible, moving from one pitch level to another for emphasis, and should have a variety of rate and volume. A good voice can be clearly heard and the words easily understood.

MANNER is the indirect revelation of the speaker's real self as the speech is delivered. The speaker should speak with enthusiasm and assurance, showing interest in the audience and confidence in their reactions.

Language (20%)

APPROPRIATENESS of language refers to the choice of words that relate to the speech purpose and to the particular audience hearing the speech. Language should promote clear understanding of thoughts, and should fit the occasion precisely.

CORRECTNESS of language ensures that attention will be directed toward what the speaker says, not how it is said. Proper use of grammar and correct pronunciation will show that the speaker is the master of the words being used.

SPEECH CONTEST

Timer Record Sheet and Instructions for Timers

Contestant	Presentation Time
	Minutes	Seconds

There shall be at least two timers, one of whom shall be provided with a stopwatch by the chief judge. They shall keep the official record of the time of each contestant's presentation.

The timers shall provide warning signal lights, which shall be clearly visible to the speakers, but not obvious to the audience. Any sightless contestant may request and must be granted a form of warning signal of his or her own choosing, which maybe an audible device; the contestant must provide any special device required for such signal.

Any contestant is disqualified whose presentation time is less than the minimum time or more than the maximum time indicated below. No signal shall be given to indicate that a presentation has gone into overtime. In the event of technical failure of the lights, a contestant is allowed 30 seconds extra overtime before being disqualified.

Timing will begin with the contestant's first definite verbal or non-verbal communication with the audience. This will usually be the first word uttered by the contestant, but would include any other communication such as sound effects, a staged act by another person, etc.

Following are the timing rules for each contest. No more than one signal light may be on at any time.

International Speech Contest: Speech length is five to seven minutes; a speaker will be disqualified if he or she speaks under four minutes, 30 seconds or more than seven minutes, 30 seconds. The green light will be turned on at five minutes. The amber light will be turned on at six minutes. The red light will be turned on at seven minutes and will remain on until the speech ends.

Humorous Speech Contest: Speech length is five to seven minutes; a contestant will be disqualified for speaking less than four minutes, 30 seconds or more than seven minutes, 30 seconds. The green light will be turned on at five minutes. The amber light will be turned on at six minutes. The red light will be turned at seven minutes and remain on until the speech ends.

Evaluation Speech Contest: Evaluation length is two to three minutes; a contestant will be disqualified for speaking less than one minute, 30 seconds or more than three minutes, 30 seconds. The green light will be turned on at two minutes. The amber light will be turned on at two minutes, 30 seconds. The red light will be turned on at three minutes and remain on until the evaluation ends.

Table Topics Speech Contest: Speech length is two minutes; a contestant will be disqualified for speaking less than one minute or more than two minutes, 30 seconds. The green light will be turned on at one minute. The amber light will be turned on at one minute, 30 seconds. The red light will be turned on at two minutes and remain on until the speech ends.

Record each contestant's presentation time on the form above. Circle any time which disqualifies the contestant. Submit the completed form to the Chief Judge immediately following the last presentation.
